FALL ON, OH GENTLE RAIN! GOSH! TH' ROOF'S LEAKIN'

'Southern California Fog' Is Still With Us, Folks; It's Wettest December Yet

REPORT ON RAINFALL

By H. E. BARTLETT
For 24 hours to 8 a. m. . . 1.36 For present storm . . . 2.95 For last ten days . . . 12.25 For season . . . 13.24
Last year . . . 2.81

It was a wet Christmas.
And it continues wet this week in southern California.

While San Francisco is literally blown to pieces by a gale, Glendale is mildly drenched by the heaviest downpour in the history of California for the month of December, according to Los Angeles weather bureau records.

City Manager W. H. Reeves this morning stated that no damage was reported in the city and the flood waters are being carried away by the washes and the Los Angeles river in great shape. Two gangs of the flood control workers are kept busy locally keeping culverts clear and no danger is anticipated.

No Shortage of Water
More rain has fallen this season than the total in several recent years and with the snow on the mountains at this early date it is expected there will be no shortage of water. Outside of the inconvenience caused by closed cars or the carrying of umbrellas the showers are appreciated, especially by the cultivators.

Along San Fernando Road in the vicinity of Grand View avenue there is quite a stretch of inundated highway.
Los Feliz Road bridge between here and Hollywood remains closed.
The Pacific Electric is maintaining guards at their Ivanhoe bridge.

Delivery and stamp windows at the Glendale postoffice were temporarily closed today when the roof in the building permitted water to run through and brought the ceiling down upon the heads of the clerks. A new location for the independent office is being sought at the present time.

Do You Like Figures?
This has been the wettest December for a number of years according to Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, who this morning furnished the following rainfall figures since Mr. Bartlett began to keep weather records:

1909, 5.27 inches; 1910, no rain; 1911, 1.03 inches; 1912, 0.03; 1913, 1.64; 1914, 4.62; 1915, 4.83; 1916, 4.54; 1917, no rain; 1918, 2.04 inches; 1919, 2.94; 1920, 1.04.

More Rain Is Predicted
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 27.— As the result of another twenty-four hours of downpour in which .84 inches of rain fell in Los Angeles, there were additional complications in the southern California flood situation today. More rain is predicted for tonight and Wednesday.

In the vicinity of the sugar factory at Anaheim 100 persons, many of whom were women and children, were driven from their homes by freshets. Food supplies were sent to relieve the refugees. A Mexican settlement between Fullerton and Anaheim was under water and a number of cattle were believed to have been drowned during the day by a sudden rise of the Anaheim river.

Several automobiles were reported to have been overturned in a desert storm near Bakersfield.

The rainfall during the last ten days in Los Angeles has been 7.51 inches. The total for the season is 8.77 inches. At this time last year only 2.96 inches had fallen.

Train From San Diego
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 27.—Passenger traffic between this city and the outside world was resumed at 11 o'clock today when the Santa Fe railroad sent out its first train since early Sunday. The train carried mail and hundreds of marooned passengers to Los Angeles.

Preparations had been made to dispatch mail on a torpedo boat destroyer but this plan was abandoned when Santa Fe officials announced that their tracks were sufficiently repaired from storm damage to warrant the dispatching of a train.

ant surprise of the occasion was the unexpected arrival of Mrs. Benner's and baby, of Tucson. Mr. Benner has been chief executive of Boy Scouts of Tucson, for some time and at which time her engagement to Emil O. Kiefer was announced. During the evening games and music were enjoyed. This was followed by a Christmas tree, with a little package for each of the guests. In this parcel was the following verse:

"You wonder about the wedding date.
We are very sure you do.
It is January 22
In 1922."

After the packages had been opened amid the surprise and delight of the guests and best wishes had been extended, refreshments were served. The house was decorated in red, with mistletoe and other greenery appropriate to the holiday season.

A very delightful miscellaneous show was given last night by Mrs.
J. C. Danford and Miss Laura Robertson at the home of the former, 308 East Harvard street. There was a Christmas tree laden with packages, all of which were presented to Miss bridge between Duarte and Azusa still closed to traffic. They enjoyed the novel sight of the river, which is a raging mountain torrent today, and

ENGLAND'S MILITARY EXPERTS WILL RETURN HOME WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Any hope that the Washington conference would attempt to deal drastically with the question of land

Great Britain's military experts, headed by the Earl of Cavan, will leave here December 31 to return to England.

spector of this city; Alfred S. Black of Boston, president of the Connecticut Theatre corporation, and Lawrence W. Carroll, manager of November 27, which devastated the theatre, causing the death of ten persons, in a finding filed today by Coroner Mix of this city.

AMERICANS ARE AGAIN BEING THREATENED BY DEATH
ROME, Dec. 27.—Another flood of blackhand letters threatening death to Richard Child, American ambassador, and destruction of the American embassy was unloosed today following news from America that the Massachusetts court had refused the appeal of Sacco and Vanzetti, the two Italians under sentence of death for the payroll holdup and murder at Braintree.

validity of indictments charging conspiracy and embezzlement of state funds against Governor Len Small and Vernon Curtis, Grant nounced today. If the indictments are upheld it is believed that date

FLIRTS WITH DEATH; HIS FUNERAL DATE WILL BE SET VALLEJO, Cal., Dec. 27.—"Watch how close I can come to death," bragged James Brennan, 16 years old, atop a box car of the electric line of the Monticello wharf as he placed his hand close to the trolley wire carrying 32,000 volts. A few moments later he had received the full charge of electricity and after being frightfully burned was thrown to the wharf below the car. He died at the General hospital here a few hours later.

HOG PRICES SUDDENLY JUMP FROM 75 CENTS TO $1.50 PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 27.—Hog prices here today jumped from 75 cents to $1.50 per hundred weight. The ordinary fluctuation is five to fifteen cents. The big advance was due to a slim run and a flood of buying orders which could not be fulfilled. Heavyweights showed 75 cents advance while pigs, lights and medium kinds were anywhere from $1 to $1.50 higher than Saturday's price. Heavies sold $8.50 to $9.50 and the light and mediums at $9.65 and $9.75.

BOY AND GIRL ARE DEAD AS RESULT OF SUICIDE PACT PASSAIC, N. J., Dec. 27.—A 17-year-old girl and her 18-year-old sweetheart were dead today, the result of a suicide pact, according to the police. The girl, Matilda Rist, died in a hospital two hours after taking strychnine while sitting in the parlor of her home. Thomas Brands, the sweetheart, who took a dose of the same poison, a few minutes later, died shortly after the girl passed away. The girl steadfastly refused to discuss her reasons for the suicide pact. The youth told Captain Turner of the Passaic police department, that the girl had confided to him a few days ago that her condition was such that she did not want to live any longer. Brands then told her, he said, that life held nothing dear for him and they decided to end their lives together. Brands purchased the poison, telling a drug store clerk he wanted to kill a dog. The couple planned to end their lives at once but postponed the act until last night so they would not spoil Christmas for their families.

RAT POISON MURDER IS BERLIN'S YULETIDE SENSATION BERLIN, Dec. 27.—A "rat poison murder" in which the accused is a woman, was Berlin's main Yuletide crime sensation and the police were busy today checking up the weird statements of the prisoner—Frau Zabel. According to the police, Frau Zabel admitted putting poison in her husband's Christmas dinner. She said that the poison had been saved from the recent city-wide rat killing campaign.
She cooked Herr Zabel's favorite dish for Christmas dinner—red cabbage, and he ate heartily. He died later in great pain. Frau Zabel told the police her husband was a drunkard and that he frequently beat her. The couple's son, who had been absent for a year, returned home on a surprise Christmas visit. The first thing his mother told him was that she had poisoned her husband. The boy fled in terror.

ARREST TWO IN GANG ACCUSED OF $2,500,000 THEFTS LOS ANGELES, Dec. 27.—Declared to be members of an international gang of bandits whose operations during the last two years have netted approximately $2,500,000 in loot from many cities, Herbert Cox and Herbert Wilson were held in jail here by federal and county authorities. The utmost secrecy has been placed about the arrests by officers in charge who are seeking at least two additional members of the big bandit gang. Cox and Wilson, it was learned today from reliable sources, are charged by the authorities with being implicated in the following robberies: The Alameda street mail robbery in Los Angeles several months ago, in which stocks, bonds and

HERE'S ONE THAT WILL NEVER SHOW UPON THE CASH REGISTER, PEOPLE

Here is the tragic story of the causes leading to the increased fares on the red car lines:

S. P. Railroad kicked son, P.
E. Railroad, out of house and home when his Uncle Sam America cut his annual earnings to 5 1/2 per cent.

The youngster now is trying to stand on his own legs which have been paralyzed for some time.

R. R. Commissioner, that beneficent Californian, is supplying crutches.

May the recovery be rapid!

THORNYCROFT BOYS WELL REMEMBERED ON CHRISTMAS

Real Spirit of Holidays Is Shown Disabled Veterans; Trees, Dinners, Dancing

Glendale's continued rainfall during the past few days did not detract in the least from the luster of the annual Christmas Day exercises at Thornycroft hospital, where about sixty ex-service men were feted and entertained through the auspices of Glendale Post No. 127 of the American Legion. Christmas trees, turkey dinner, smokes, fruit, candy and many other such appropriate presents helped to add cheer to the veterans' Yuletide.

The "big doings" started at 10 o'clock when about 200 former buddies and their friends and relatives gathered in the large dining room in the west wing of the main building and were entertained by an appropriately rendered Christmas program. All of the artists who took part, the names of which are withheld by their special request, were well-known musicians of this and nearby cities who donated their services for the occasion.

Individual Programs
At the same time that the program was being conducted in the dining room each of the artists took part in the "progressive serenade," which consisted of several numbers being played in the rooms of the bed-ridden veterans. Each room was furnished with an individual electrically-lighted Christmas tree, which, in turn, was heavily laden with candy, cigarettes and suitable presents.

At noon the large and beautifully decorated tree in the dining room was lighted up, following which its overloaded limbs were lightened when the boys were presented with numerous tokens of respect and loyalty by their comrades and friends. A real Christmas dinner, with all the trimmings, fittingly "rounded out" the day's program.

Those in charge of the affair, which was the most successful in the history of the institution, were Gerald Delgado, Clarence Edwards, Emil Kiefer and others.

To "top off" the celebration the boys were further entertained last night when a number of girls from Los Angeles and Culver City conducted an informal dance in the ball room of the institution. All in all, the boys state that it was the best Christmas that they've enjoyed in many years.

L. C. Brand Home Is Social Setting On Christmas Eve

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brand entertained a number of relatives and the residents of the estate very pleasantly last Saturday night. A beautiful Christmas tree, electrically lighted and laden with lovely gifts was placed in the court. A pleasing program of vocal, violin and piano music was given by the children present. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and children, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew, Mrs. Stocker, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Dryden of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bley and children, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pomeroy and children of the estate; Mr. and Mrs. Reuben George of Glendale.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Winnard of 461 Riverdale Drive entertained at a delightful Christmas dinner party at their home yesterday. The guests included Mrs. E. R. Ston, Miss Mary Eaton, Dr. and Mrs. V. L.
Winnard, Dr. and Mrs. Ralston F.
Winnard of Eugene, Ore.; Mrs. N. L.
Winnard of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Martie Winnard, formerly of Kansas and now of Venice, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tetis and daughter, Eva.

GENERAL INCREASE IN FARES GIVEN TOP. E. SYSTEM

Yes, Glendale Folk Have to Pay More for Rides; Raise for Commuters Is Slight

Wang!
Glendale awoke this morning, well fed up by the feasts of the holidays, and what did it find as a Christmas present?

Rain, yes, and lots of that.
Increased interurban rates, yes, and lots of that.

A headache, well, one might imagine it would result.
The Pacific Electric railroad has won a mileage basis of fares from the state railroad commission to be effective January 1.

No one ever suspected what would happen, but look at the table in the morning papers and see for yourself that, whereas Glendale passengers had been paying 17 cents for a one way fare to Los Angeles, they will pay 23 cents after New Year's Eve.
And the round trip has been increased more than 25 per cent, from 30 cents to 38 cents.

Increases Over System Similar increases are effective all over the system, according to E. H.
Sharpe of the Pacific Electric passenger department. And there are lower adjustments on the Pasadena, Burbank and other lines in order to conform with the mileage basis of computation.

Practically all Hollywood people will pay 10 cents fare while the calendar month commutation, averaging sixty rides, will be sold to regular Glendale passengers for $6.03.
This makes rates comparatively the same. Incidentally, the increase on the commutation has been small, the calendar month book formerly selling for $5.81—a difference of 22 cents, according to Mr. Sharpe. The thirty ride, ninety days book will sell for $4.40 instead of $3.46.

Hollywood Is Aroused Hollywood is really wrought up over the situation which will make residents of California pay 20 cents daily for riding downtown and back. This ought to make the rentals of Bunker Hill apartments go up $5 a month.
Blanket beach rates will be removed, except for Sundays and holidays, with the result that crowds can get a round trip ride to Venice for 70 cents, but if they go to Long Beach it will be 85 cents. This ought to aid the harbor city's growth. San Pedro fares will be equally as high.
You can figure your new rates on a mileage basis, as follows:

INTERURBAN FARES

	Old Rates	Proposed Rates
	Cts. a Mile	Cts. a Mile
One Way	3.6	2.75
Round Trip	3.0	2.25
30-Ride Book	1.8	1.75

The rates are on straight mileage, denot to depot, excluding Los Angeles city zone rates. All fares from points outside of Los Angeles or between intermediate stations receive the straight reductions. All long hauls out of Los Angeles will be reduced. Only a few hauls out of Los Angeles, too short to absorb the mileage scale, will be increased, and these but slightly.

Merle Hadsell and Wife Are Hosts at Yuletide Gathering

A merry group gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hadsell, 129 South Everett street, on Saturday night. Their Christmas tree was beautifully decorated and electrically lighted, with the numerous gifts piled high around it. During the merry-making, the lights were turned off a moment, and the little six-year-old daughter, Hadsell, was made happy by seeing old Santa Claus enter and deposit a beautiful doll and a tricycle, labeled with her name.
After the gifts were distributed, light refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Herslie and daughter, May, of La Canada; Mrs.
Mary Jansen, Mrs. M. N. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oliver, Mr. and Mrs.
Hadsell and Alva Hadsell.

W. F. Knox Home Scene of Pleasing Christmas Party

teen, the guests including Mrs. John H. Ireland, Miss Hope Ireland, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Knox, Mrs. C. E. Knox, Flora Knox, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Knox and son Bert, Dylon Knox and Christine Knox of Glendale.

The home was beautifully decorated with the Christmas colors. After a bountiful turkey dinner the attention was turned to a well-laden Christmas tree with gifts for everyone. The guests departed for their homes at a late hour, declaring Mrs.
Knox had proven herself to be a

other registered mail valued at nearly $1,500,000 was stolen. The Fifth street store robbery in Los Angeles about two years ago. In this case the night watchman was bound and gagged and the safe blown open. Approximately $40,000 was taken. The Hale store in San Francisco, which was robbed in a manner similar to that of the Fifth street store here. Numerous robberies in Cleveland and Cincinnati, Ohio, and in other cities in the United States and Canada in which loot to the value of more than $1,000,000 was obtained. It also was reported that the federal authorities have obtained evidence indicating that Wilson, Cox and other alleged members of the gang were responsible for several mail robberies in eastern cities.

TRADE AGREEMENT IS SIGNED BY RUSSIA AND ITALY
 ROME, Dec. 27.—A temporary commercial convention has been signed by Italy and Russia, it was announced today. The agreement states that it does not bind Italy to recognize the Soviet government at Moscow.

SHIPMENT OF SILK WORTH $6,000,000 UNDER GUARD
 SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—Heavily guarded, one of the largest shipments of silk from the Orient ever received on the Pacific coast, was transferred today from the steamer Tenyo Maru to a special train which will beat passenger train time to New York. There are 5734 bales of silk in the shipment weighing 420 tons and approximating $6,000,000 in value. The heaviest armed guard ever sent out by the Southern Pacific company will accompany the silk to its destination. The silk train will reach New York New Year's.

HENRY FORD HAS RIVAL FOR MUSCLE SHOALS PROJECT
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—C. C. Tinkler, president of the San Francisco Construction company, today loomed as a rival of Henry Ford for the leasing of the water power development project at Muscle Shoals, Alabama. Secretary of War Weeks received a telegram from Tinkler today stating the latter would arrive in Washington about January 5 for a conference on his offer to lease the project. The Ford negotiations, it was officially learned, have been temporarily suspended but officials would not connect this action with Tinkler's offer.

RECEIVER APPOINTED FOR ROBERT H. INGERSOLL CO.
 NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Robert H. Ingersoll & Brothers, watch manufacturers, was filed in the United States district court today, by the National City bank, the Chase National bank at Hathaway, Smithfolds and Company. The creditors declare the company's liabilities are in excess of $3,000,000 and its assets, exclusive of good will, in excess of $2,000,000. The company has manufacturing plants in Trenton, N. J., Waterbury, Conn., and Chicago. Edward H. Childs was appointed receiver.

WIFE OF ALLEGED CONSPIRATOR IS NOW UNDER ARREST
 CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Federal authorities here today refused to comment on the arrest in San Diego, Cal., of Mrs. Charles W. French, wife of the alleged co-conspirator of "Honest John" W. Worthington in an alleged $25,000,000 swindle scheme. Mrs. French, according to word received here, was arrested at San Diego, charged with using the mails to defraud and was held in default of $10,000 bonds. It is understood that her arrest was caused by federal authorities here as the result of their investigation of the activities of French and Worthington. Worthington and French are declared to have been the head of a syndicate that is alleged to have negotiated deals involving millions' worth of spurious stocks and bonds. Both are waiting trial on the charges.

WORDS OF DEAD MAN TO BE BROUGHT INTO BURCH CASE
 LOS ANGELES, Dec. 27.—Like a voice from the grave, the words of a dead man were expected to be brought today into the trial of Arthur C. Burch, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, by the defense to attack the testimony of Mrs. Elizabeth Besenty, star prosecution witness. Paul W. Schenck, chief of defense counsel, planned to demand that District Attorney Woolwine produce a report made by Deputy Sheriff John Cronin, who investigated the Kennedy murder on the night of the slaying and who died several months ago. The day following the murder, Schenck stated, Cronin made a written report which has been in the possession of the prosecution and which was not a part of Woolwine's case in court against Burch. Schenck declared that Cronin's report flatly contradicts a portion of the testimony of Mrs. Besenty.

SUBMARINE FATE RESTS WITH PARIS AND TOKIO
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Decisions in the armament conference are again being delayed by foreign capitals while the delegates in Washington cool their heels awaiting word from abroad which will permit a resumption of activities. The fate of the submarine so far as the present conference goes, rests largely with Paris and Tokio. Upon their instructions to their respective delegations in Washington depends to a considerable degree whether the submarine controversy will be settled here within the next four weeks or whether the whole controversial question will be permitted to go over until another conference, to be held some years hence. Meanwhile, developments are held up and activities suspended in Washington. It had been intended to have a meeting of the naval committee today, but the conference leaders reluctantly ordered a postponement late last night after it became apparent that neither the French nor Japanese delegations were in a position to give a final answer to the American compromise proposal advanced on Saturday.

NINETEEN KILLED, MANY WOUNDED IN EGYPT RIOTING
 LONDON, Dec. 27.—Nineteen persons were killed and forty-six wounded in week-end rioting by the Egyptian nationalists, according to a Cairo dispatch to the Daily Herald today. The general strike has paralyzed the British administration in Egypt. A large number of government officials at Cairo have quit work and the ministries and law courts have been closed. The British destroyer F-35 was today stationed at the entrance of the Suez canal to protect it from rioting nationalists, said a dispatch to the Daily Express from Cairo, Egypt. Four hundred arrests have been made. Warships are anchored off Alexandria and the city is being patrolled by armored cars. Most of the towns were comparatively quiet today. Egyptian notables have issued a manifesto asking that the general strike movement be curtailed. There is a deep undercurrent of unrest in the provinces that are loyal to Zaghloul, the leader of the nationalists. Suez is quiet, thanks to the military precautions of the British. Lorrys filled with soldiers patrolled the streets all night. Crowds were kept moving and a proclamation was issued saying that smoke bombs would be thrown into the crowds unless they dispersed.

IS DELIVERED BY REV. EDMONDS

Mary, Mother of Jesus, Used As Topic of Address by the Pastor Sunday Morning

Christmas day at the Presbyterian church was fittingly observed in the music and the sermon. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, used as his text: "But Mary kept all these things in her heart."
 "None ever could really understand the thoughts of Mary; none ever had her experience. The angel had told her the secret of the world. During those months she was fitted to become the mother of the Christ. You are face to face here with the supernatural. At Bethlehem is no place to think lightly but to take our shoes from off our feet. Here we are at the fulfillment of the greatest promise in all scripture.
 "As Phillips Brooks' hymn says, 'O little town of Bethlehem, the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.'"

Fundamental of Faith
 "Here we come before the great doctrine of the virgin birth? If you bring your 'if' and question here before the manger cradle, there is nothing in it for you but the illegitimate son of a misguided woman. The virgin birth is the fundamental of our whole faith for, if that be false, all is false. We cannot understand it; we can only believe it. And there can be no Christmas apart from the incarnation of Jesus. This is not a thing for measuring human wisdom—you can't measure the King of Glory."

"Bethlehem has for us one of the sublimest object lessons of faith: Mary had answered the angel messenger, 'Be it unto me according to thy word.' And Bethlehem has a message for the seeker after God, 'Where is he?' Not for the modern stargazer of false religions but for the true heart."

Realm of Human Life
 "And it is the place for adoration. In the center of all Christmas joy put Christ—not less joy but more devotion. Go back to Bethlehem to learn what consecration means. Those wise men, who came from afar 'when they had opened their treasures they presented unto Him gifts' which had been in packages. This suggests that these days some things are tied up. Open up your most valuable package, your life! And the second, your affections; look up his face and say you love Him! The third package, myrrh, stands for sympathy and suffering. These three cover the whole realm of human life.
 "And the advent of Christ brings rest. The government shall be upon His shoulder; let Him govern our whole life and carry our whole burden. 'Come unto me and I will give you rest.' And Christmas means so much to us as the standpoint of our gifts.
 "The thing America needs is the spirit of Christ. As we come back from Bethlehem, shall we not ponder all things in our hearts and adore Him as Christ, our King?"

'Wonderful Jesus,'
Rev. Calderwood's
Christmas Subject

"The 'Wonderful Jesus' was the topic of Rev. C. M. Calderwood's Christmas sermon at the Congregational church. He said in part:
 "Science tells us that there is not one perfect leaf in the forest and not a rose in the garden that does not have a blemish. The winter chills the roots, frosts bite the seed, and the winter's storms of rain, snow, and sleet strain the boughs. Nature gives us not perfection but enough to satisfy our needs.
 "Man is not perfect. His trains jump the track, his ships sink in the sea, and his airplanes fall from the sky. Man's art is good, but not perfect. His Venus de Milo lacks arms, and his Winged Victory is without a head. Man's laws are passed by one congress or legislature only to be repealed by the next. His judicial decisions decreed by one court are reversed by another. Enemies arise and must be forgiven for either we have failed or they."

Even the prophets and the apostles were not perfect and must be forgiven. They were God's best gifts to men. They are the men of vision. While others look toward the land and sea they looked toward the stars. The prophet is not the foreteller of events, but the foreteller of eternal principles. Praise God for these men, but how much man has to forgive in them. Jacob was a deceiver. Moses was a murderer. Joshua was a wholesale murderer. David was the sweet singer of Israel, but he mourned a dirge when he secretly plotted passion and murder. The prophets of the exile swept like a tornado when love was needed. John the Baptist was narrow, pessimistic and painted things in one color, which was black. The beloved apostle, John, called the fire down from heaven. Paul was too harsh. Calvin was intellectually harsh. Jonathan Edwards thrust sinners into the hands of an angry God, making justice everything and mercy nothing. From Abraham down to today the pages of history have been scarred and stained by the imperfections of great men. Let us forgive them and let us remember that there is one whose name we call 'Wonderful.'"

The philosophers must be forgiven, too. Darwin as a philosopher organized the facts of life into a system. Newton discovers some of God's laws of nature and works them into a system. Great is our debt to the philosophers who clear the mist from the haze of thought. They must be forgiven. Plato gives a room for polygamy. Bacon was not always true. Charles Lamb drank. Coleridge used opium. Carlyle was a cynic. John Ruskin was an egotist. Let us forgive these giants of the intellect, for, though they were strong, yet were they weak. But there is no weakness, cynicism, treachery, egotism in the life of the Wonderful Jesus who was born in Bethlehem 1900 years ago.

 "Yea, Jesus was wonderful, but he never wrote a line of poetry, carved a statue, sang a song, painted a picture, won a battle or conquered enemies. Others were great artists, singers, warriors, poets, but Jesus conquest was in the realm of personality. Poets could use words in beautiful ways to make everlasting literature, but Jesus used words to make everlasting lives. Generals knew how to marshal great armies and conquer enemies, but Jesus knew how to conquer the enemies of the soul. Painters put the pictures of beautiful lives on canvas, but Jesus constantly holds before us his own example of the beautiful life. Sculptors mold marble into bodily forms, but Jesus molded lives thru influence and power of his own. Musicians could compose oratorios, but the birth of Jesus brought the hallelujah choruses from the angels of the sky. It is no wonder that men carry his cross, follow in his steps, study his teachings and copy his life and that the angels sang 'Glory in the Highest, Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men.'"

CUBA NEAR REVOLUTION?
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 27.—A warning that Cuba, goaded by hunger, poverty and financial collapse, faces a revolution and a reversion to conditions that preceded the Spanish-American war was voiced by the Senate finance committee by Edwin W. Atkins, of Boston, for forty years a raiser and exporter of Cuban sugar.

GLASS OF SALTS
CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active. Lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; to also neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

Following Star, Is Subject of Sermon by Rev. C. A. Cole

"Following the star; what do you find?" inquired Rev. Clifford A. Cole in his Christmas sermon at the Central Christian church.

"The wise men had joy. A new star was a new sign, a thing of great portent. Therein lies the possibility of much joy using the less to suggest the greater. One flower becomes a garden. The line of a song stands for the anticipated joys of heaven.
A single word contains a volume. The "Merry Christmas" tells a long, long story. A sign of a voice summons the presence of comrades and loved ones of other days. When one grows old how the signs and tokens drive away the cares that would infest."

"Some may rejoice in the star until in their intense gladness they may forget the significance. Some may have a happy Christmas with the Christ left out. Some let the star lead them to the door of the inn and never enter to see the child. The wise men entered the house and saw the child and worshipped. To make the treasure of the feast of evil when they have worshipped at the throne? Who can be obedient to the call of the world after serving Him? So many of us are always going back to Herod. So many of us enter and see the Christ and then go back to the old evil things. We are enticed by the glitter of the King's palace after we have walked in the litter of the stable where the Christ child lies."

"Oh, go back another way and all the good things of the old road will be transplanted and bloom by your doorstep. Should you have two flowers, lay both at the feet of Jesus and surely there will come into your hands many more to give."

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Builders: Up and At It!
Santa Claus Gets Blame
But 400 Need Charity Here Who's Looney? Burch?

By Gil A. Cowan

BUILDERS of Glendale To your duty and push the 1921 record for construction over the $5,000,000 mark.

One more week to go and only a little total to make—about $50,000. It can be done!

True, there should have and would have been more homes under way had it not been for the rain, but now that the winter's wetness is here, the contractors might as well make the most of it and go "straight ahead."

And after the race has been won, let everybody get behind the glorious prosperity prevailing here and push into the New Year with a building program that will again make the world watch!

From far and near word is received that Glendale, California is known as "the fastest growing city in America of its class." That slogan must be maintained. There is just as great demand for homes and business buildings today as there was yesterday.

Accessible, beautiful, enjoyably human in its associations, this city stands head and shoulders above other communities in its appeal to commoners.

That's why everybody is "for" the town which has grown so remarkably in the last decade. Let us keep it that way with the confidence and co-operation so noticeable to the strangers in our midst.

Santa Claus, that funny old fellow, got a lot of blame for errors in commission and omission on Christmas Eve. The little boy who got a drum and wanted a wagon; the little girl who wanted a doll and didn't get much of anything other than a handkerchief—both are going to hold a grudge and before another year is past they will likely look up Kris Kringle's record.

It is really wonderful how people can be led to blame the wrong parties. At Tunjuna the other day a deputy sheriff got a letter from the Automobile Club "calling" him proper for reckless driving when his crime was committed in catching a drunken motorist.

The Chinese for thousands of years blamed their famines on the gods of rain, flood, sun and insect pests. All of which could be called self-hypnotism, the acceptance of imaginary evils into their lives.

When enlightened engineers from America looked into the problem they discovered water a few feet under the surface of the earth and today American gasoline is fueling pumps that irrigate the rice fields and provide sustenance for the starving.

Only 140 families in the San Fernando valley and vicinity requiring aid from the local B.R.s lodge. This information in Friday's edition of The Glendale Evening News was both appalling and pleasing.

How comes it that 400 people are needy in this land of plenty; how come that so many, many people are getting along nicely. Surely it must be sickness or misfortune that drags down the 400. And equally as certain it must be prosperity that keeps the 50,000 residents of the valley "up and at it."

The Kennedy case has reached the disinteresting stage. When they try to prove Arthur Burch crazy on testimony such as introduced by his father and "Main Street" depositions, it is about time they call a halt to such foolish procedure. Sanity of some of the principal witnesses is to be doubted, however.

And if somebody would say that Madalynne was "crazy" about men, it might be believed. But, as for Burch, well, the jury can attend to his case.

More than 25,000,000 tons of patent fuel are made in Germany annually.

Here Are the Champions in Sport for the Year 1921; They Set Records for 1922 to Shoot At

$45,000 Ought to Make 'Bob' Young's Holidays Happier

Happy "Bob" Young, Pacific Electric Conductor No. 2072, who buffers about the East Broadway Glendale line daily, is a lot happier today than usual.

Christmas Eve he received word that his father's $45,000 estate had been awarded him by New York courts after 15 years of litigation. When asked by The Glendale Evening News representative as to what he would do with the goodly-sized fortune, he said that it would be saved for his children, Genevieve, Muriel and Robert, Jr.

The family lives at 3110 Darien Place, Hollywood park. Surely it was a happy Christmas for them to know that the rainy day cannot spoil their happiness.

Auto Club Seeks to Make Whole State Safe

A hope that motorists will get tired of hearing the word "accident" repeated over and over that they will stop causing accidents has been expressed by officials of the Automobile Club of Southern California in considering a new plan for making this part of the state safe for all.

It is the general adoption of the "vigilante" scheme as employed for the past two months in Los Angeles, during which time 1448 auto owners received warnings to be more careful from the Safety Bureau of the Automobile Club.

If this plan is put into operation throughout the southern counties, 100 public spirited citizens will be chosen from each community to aid the Auto Club in curbing accidents. These citizens, who will be furnished with secret numbers and with traffic cards on which to mark the state license numbers of law offenders as they observe them in this section.

All cards will be mailed to the nearest county office of the Automobile Club, from which the letters of warning will be sent out, if the plan is actually put into operation.

Club officials are seeking expressions of opinion locally as to whether or not the most careful motorists believe it to be a good thing. Warnings are sent to the offending individuals before they are finally turned over to the police, but it has so far proved sufficient to address letters of advice to those reported by the vigilance committee members.

Roosevelt's Experience:

Though uncommonly told, is not at all unusual. When a small boy he was very near-sighted and in his autobiography in part he said, "My first pair of spectacles opened an entirely new world to me. I had no idea how beautiful the world was until I got those spectacles. I had been a clumsy, awkward little boy, and while much of my clumsiness and awkwardness was doubtless due to general characteristics, a good deal of it was due to the fact I could not clearly see and yet was wholly ignorant that I was not seeing."

Children who can not clearly see are often unjustly blamed for being obstinate or unambitious or mentally stupid—when in reality they are only near sighted and the trouble could be easily remedied by an optician. This vacation week is a convenient time to have your child's eyes examined.

Feel free to call on us for any minor adjustment of your glasses. We'll be glad to serve you.

The WORLD OVER By FRANKLIN B. MORSE PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

The cost of the football season for the season of 1921 for the University of California, was $26,954.79. The proceeds of the preliminary games brought in $51,954.98. Add to this California's share of the big receipts taken in at the Stanford game, and what is coming from the Washington and Jefferson game at Pasadena on January 2, and it will be seen that football has been a paying proposition for the Bear.

From some quarters there is an insistent call for a match between Jack Dempsey and the negro, Harry Wills. The idea probably is born of the fact that nowhere else in the ranks is there a candidate who is thought likely to have a chance against the champion. On the other hand, it might be well to remember that when Jack Johnson finally was dethroned by Jess Willard, everybody held up their hands and solemnly swore "never again" as far as a negro champion of the world was concerned. Of course, Wills is a different character from Johnson, but it goes to show how quickly the public forgets.

A San Francisco sports writer alludes to the invitation of Harvard to the University of California for a football game next fall as "concession" on the part of the easterners which should be ignored by the Bears. There would have been Pasadena if the western invitations had been taken as "concession" by eastern teams. One narrow-minded sports writer can do more harm than a dozen fair-minded ones can contravert.

The Pacific coast baseball league seems determined to make a strenuous fight against the draft and, as far as the coast fans are concerned, they are behind the organization. The fans have their point of view, and that is, when they pay their money they consider they have just as much right to see the good players in action as the east has. Whether or not the Pacific Coast league can be classed as a major organization and thus escape the draft, remains to be seen, but it would seem the part of fair play that owners of clubs on the coast league should not be compelled to give up players they want to retain. Given this option, the wrath of the fans could be vented on the heads of these owners if they, of their own free will, parted with the favorites among the fans.

Plans have been perfected for the New Year's golf tournament which is to be held at the Coronado golf club which is open to all members of recognized clubs. This will be the first opportunity for competition in preparation for the coming state and coast events which will come along fairly rapidly on each other's heels during the next few months. The Coronado competition will be over handicap. There will be prizes for the low gross score and for the low net score. A number of eastern players who are at Coronado for winter will be among the list of entrants.

SPORTS CHATTER By BILL UNMACK PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Realizing the fact that California tennis players, who play on hard courts, are handicapped when they go east and play on grass in championship tournaments, Golden Gate park, in San Francisco is to install a perfect grass court which will be for the use exclusively of those particular stars who will play in such a tournament as the National events, or Davis cup series.

Men such as Bundy, Johnston, McLaughlin, and others have stated that it takes them some time when they get east to become familiar with the "feel" of the grass courts after their long practice on the hard variety. The growth of tennis in San Francisco, which is only a local point in the growth of the game in the state, is attested by the fact that nine additional hard courts immediately will be added to the score or more of courts now available in the park. As stated, only men of championship calibre who are practically assured of playing in the national or international events will be permitted to use the grass court which it is figured will cost from three to five thousand dollars annually to keep in perfect condition. By this means, it is expected that the local players will be ahead just the time it takes them to get used to the grass courts after they reach the east.

A half dozen new courts have been installed at Stanford University, and practically from every section of the coast comes the same report of the installation of additional playing. Whether or not tennis or golf is the fastest growing game out on the Pacific Coast is a matter of considerable discussion between adherents of the two games. Both sides seem able to produce fairly conclusive evidence that its particular game must be awarded the palm.

As far as his plans for the coming summer are concerned, William Johnston, the former National singles champion, and Davis cup player, has said very little, and the possibility that he may retire from competition still looms a possibility although his friends are inclined to the belief that he hardly will give up the game as yet. It is known, however, that he overplayed last season, and it is more than likely that his competition will be considerably curtailed, and that he will play only to the extent necessary to keep him up to form for championship play.

Recently, some steps have been taken to organize another cup for the youngsters at the game, the main idea being that attention to their game will be given them by tennis players who already have won their spurs. Such a club did exist when Dr. Sidney R. Marvin was a resident of San Francisco, and it is to him that the credit is given for developing most of the California players who have become nationally and internationally known.

It is realized that some such plan must again be brought into being if the crop of players, of more than ordinary ability is to be maintained. There are but few promising youngsters in sight now.

TURN HAIR DARK
WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Advertisement.

Star Is Seen by Men on Battlefield, Says Rev. Preston

"Did men on the battlefields of Europe see the star?" inquired the Rev.
Harley G. Preston Sunday morning in his Christmas sermon.

"God has placed the human race here with the power to do good or evil. In the last analysis the cause of war is sin, disobedience to the laws of God and the teachings of Christ.
Yes, the men on the battlefield saw 'the star' and the nations of the world are seeing it today and our prayer is that nothing shall be permitted to obstruct the program of peace and good-will among the people of the earth.

"There were many who did not see the Star of Bethlehem, blinded perhaps by the light of the fires of their own kindling. Others saw but did not heed, but were content to worship at the shrine of the goddess of pleasure. Still others were bent down, weary and despondent.
They did not so much as lift their eyes. But, out in the East were some wise men, persistent searchers for light. They saw the Star and followed it.

"The Bible is indeed a star, which if followed, leads to conviction, repentance, conversion and Heaven.
The conscience, properly educated and influenced by the Holy Spirit is a star—a guiding star. Any method God uses in pointing men to Christ is a star.

"The wise men were complimented for their stick-to-it-iveness. They were not content with just seeing the star. They never would have found Christ had they not persistently followed the star. Neither will men find Christ today unless they follow up the light of the star God has given them.

"No, it was not arranged for the Christ child to be carried to the shepherds and wise men. He came more than half way by far when He came from heaven to earth. If you have not yet found Christ, it would pay you to leave your secular duties for a time, as the shepherds and wise men, and find the Christ and get right with God. I do not believe that a man can be thoroughly right with his neighbor until he is right with God."

Bonuses to Employees of Exchange Smaller

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The Christmas holidays were tinged with a shade of disappointment for employees of the Wall street financial district when Christmas bonuses were distributed by stock exchange firms.
Unfavorable business conditions and a scarcity of money for speculative purposes have made 1921 a lean year for brokerage houses and the falling off in the value in stock market business was reflected in a slashing of bonuses to employees. Whereas, in the days of the war boom when stock market trading was feverish, bonuses ranging from 33 1-3 per cent to 100 per cent of the year's salary were given out, this year the gifts generally ran from a week's to a month's salary and only half as many Wall street firms are making the distribution as compared with last year.

Bond houses and banks, however, who have had a very favorable year, have adopted a more liberal attitude on the bonus question than stock exchange firms. This has been one of the best bond years for quite a time.
Distributions by bank and bond houses generally range from five to fifteen per cent of the yearly salary.

FURTHER ARGUMENT OF LUKEN'S SITE IS SUBMITTED

P. S. McNutt Writes Another Communication on Subject; Sees 'Greater Glendale'

Editor The Evening News—The marvel is, that we are yet able to secure twenty-one acres in Glendale, in a most ideal location, and at so reasonable a price. It's a fortunate accident. Being a paying orange grove, the owners have resisted the many offers of purchasers to buy and cut it into lots.

The main central part of Glendale must always be between Wilson and Lomita as north and south limits, and between Central avenue and Glendale avenue as west and east limits. Within this plot is the city hall, fire house, intermediate school, the churches, library, hotels, fraternity buildings, sanitarium, theatres, stores and businesses of all kinds.

And, just to think, we can have this fine high school site on the Luken's tract only a step to the east, but a few blocks. A most ideal place of twenty-one acres—good as Pasadena, Fullerton, Hollywood or any other city has.

Now, the voters should lose no time in nailing this opportunity, which will be ours but once.

It would not be so bad to go out on the San Fernando Road at the edge of the district, for a place, if it were a superior site at a reasonable price. But to go away out there for an inferior site as the Grey site is, and then pay such an exorbitant price is entirely out of the question.

When Improvements Made

When streets are opened around it this Grey site will have only about eighteen acres, which at $75,500 is nearly $4500 per acre. First-class street work will run it up to $90,000 or about $5000 per acre, a most absurd price. And there is no well on it as the Luken's site has. The reservation of nearly an acre for Grey's residence on the front of the site, makes the site too objectionable to consider.

Not living near either site, it is not personal prejudice with me. Indeed, most of my holdings are near Burbank, and to build up the vacant tracts along the San Fernando Road would in a way advantage me. But the location of permanent public improvements should not be based upon the self interest of a few persons who happen to live near available sites, or a few real estate agents who have tracts for sale.

Every one in Los Angeles knows now that her big postoffice is not located where it ought to be. Its selection was influenced wholly by a few near property owners and a few real estate dealers. Let us not repeat such a thing in Glendale. The Luken's site has in itself such great merit—an ideal site from every standpoint. And it is very central and convenient for the entire high school district, except perhaps for a narrow strip extending from Grand View Road to the Burbank city limits.

Great Thing for Glendale

The biggest thing that could come to Glendale would be to extend her limits eastward to the Pasadena boundary, near the Annandale golf grounds. This is now the east limit of the Glendale Union High school district. This is a practicable matter and no idle dream. Wouldn't it be wonderful if Glendale could occupy all the territory from Pasadena to Burbank? And it does it now, partially. Since the annexation of Sierra avenue and Scholl canyon district, Glendale city extends from the San Fernando Road more than four miles east through the district to the Pasadena boundary. This new district can accommodate ten thousand people.

Eagle Rock City is now bounded north and west by Glendale all the way. It occupies the same position to Glendale as Tropico did, and has the same reasons for annexing to Glendale exactly as Tropico did. Glendale can furnish water to Eagle Rock much cheaper and easier than Los Angeles could. This could be done by pumping from a reservoir in Verdugo canyon to a reservoir on the hill above Mr. Smalley's house, or from the foot of Los Feliz Road to a reservoir on the hill east of Mr.
Sherer's home. There is plenty of electricity, and a limitless supply of water in the Los Angeles river bed.

Looks Into Future

It is my opinion that upon grounds of health and sanitation a law can be and will be provided compelling Los Angeles city to permit, upon equitable terms, connections by these cities to her sewer mains. This will completely solve the sewer complications.
When Eagle Rock becomes part of Glendale, we will have the big Sierras power plant connection, and the Occidental college—a college of our own, and be the second city of importance in Los Angeles county.

To have people come and make homes in Glendale is not the most important thing to work upon now. The natural location of the city would alone fill it with people in time. All the Chamber of Commerce can do in that respect is to hasten the time.
Most important are those who are here on the ground early is to see to it that the public improvements like the high school site be selected in a way that the people who come later will be properly taken care of without the needless expense of tearing down and doing our work again.

And it is not enough simply to favor these best and proper things, but we must take enough interest to get out and work and vote for them as opportunity appears.

This election for bonds and high school site on December 29 is the most important matter that has yet come before us for decision. Will not every elector in the district feel it an imperative duty to go and in-

England Makes Its Fight Against Sea Sharks; Is Opposed

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 27.— Great Britain made her plea for the abolition of the submarine secret session of the committee on naval limitation and it was instantly opposed by spokesmen for France, Italy and Japan.

Secretary Hughes, on behalf of the American delegation, reserved until a later date the full expression of the American position on the submarine, although it is known that the American naval opinion is solidly against the British proposal.

The committee spent the entire afternoon dealing with the submarine question. Lord Lee, First Lord of the British Admiralty, presented Great Britain's position in a lengthy and what was described as a "powerful" speech. When he had finished M. Sarraut of the French delegation, addressed the conference and said that France was not only opposed to the abolition of submarines but was opposed also to any measures looking to their limitation as to size.

Senator Schanzer, on behalf of Italy, voiced similar sentiments, and M. Hanbara of Japan also added his nation's opposition to the radical step, proposed by Great Britain.

Chairman Hughes summarized the arguments advanced by the various spokesmen and declared that at a later date he would set forth the American position. One thing that has been demonstrated by the Secretary said, was the unanimity of belief among the powers assembled that submarine warfare must be restricted and not permitted to run rampant and unchecked as it did in the late war.

Tropico Presbyterian Church Gives Program

The Christmas program given Friday night by the Sunday school of the Tropico Presbyterian church, of which H. E. Fry is superintendent, was attended by over 200 parents and friends of the children. The decorations included a Christmas tree, wreath and so forth, suggestive of the holiday season.

The program opened with a song by the school, "Joy to the World," and also included a scripture reading from Luke by the girls of Miss Reba Richardson's class; prayer, by Allen Adams; song, "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," by the school; recitation, by Mary Hartzlee; exercise, "The Christmas Story," by the primary department; recitation, by Christina Gift, by Pliny Barnes; song, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," by the school; recitation, by Rosemary Gilhuly; song, "Ring Sweet Bells," by the primary department; song, "Hang the Stockings in a Row," by primary department; recitation, "When Santa Comes," by Dorothy Erskine; recitation by Helen Wilcox; exercise, "Christmas Dolls," by the beginners' class; exercise, "A Christmas Tree," by the boys of Mrs.
John Server's class; recitation, "Christmas Stockings," by Betty Grant and Dorothy Erskine; recitation, "Advice," by Allison Goldsborough; exercise, "Song of the Stockings," by Miss Terzah Snell's class; exercise, "A Model Christmas Tree," by Mildred Moody, assisted by children from the primary department; song, "Christmas Land," by the primary department; song by the school, "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," exercise, "Good-Night," by Helen Hardwig's class, in which all of the little tots came in with their "nighties" on.

After the program Santa Claus, assisted by the boys of Mr. Hyer's class, distributed presents and boxes of candy to the members of the Sunday school. The evening's entertainment closed with all singing "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing."

Impressive Pageant at First Methodist Church

"Bethlehem" means "House of Bread," according to A. W. Tower, superintendent of the Sunday school at the First Methodist church, who Friday night made an appeal for funds to send to starving mothers and children in the vicinity of the birthplace of Christ. A generous sum was donated and the boys of Mr. Hyer's class, immediately to the Near East Relief.

Outside a city gate surmounted with the word "Bethlehem" and flanked on each side by a realistic artificial stone wall, a pageant was enacted which Dr. C. M. Crist declares was the finest thing of its kind which he has ever had the privilege of witnessing at Christmas time. The characters were dressed in Oriental costumes, according to the period depicted. The scene was illuminated by a spot light. Miss Dorothy Peart, Victor Colburn and Edwin Murphy took principal part.

After an appropriate song at the opening of the program by Mrs. L. C.
Leeds, words of prophecy, and Miss Alice Lookabaugh, muse of history, they stood at either side of the stage during the performance of the pageant. A half hour concert of Christmas music was given by the twenty-five piece Methodist orchestra, led by C.
K. Aston. One of the audience reported that this orchestra could not be surpassed anywhere in the district.

Casa Verdugo Church Gives Christmas Party

Approximately 200 persons were in attendance at the Christmas entertainment given at the Casa Verdugo Methodist Episcopal church Friday night. The church was decorated with pepper boughs and palms.

The program was arranged under the direction of Mrs. John W. Cotton, assisted by the different teachers of the Sunday school, one number being given by members of each class. Jane Dickerson, aged 5, gave the address of welcome, throwing a kiss to the audience in closing. Martha Jones, Howard Chase and Ruth Koenig each sang a very pretty selection. Old Christmas Carols, Three Kings of Orient and Good King Wenceslas were sung and illustrated in costume by Dorothy Cotton, Gladys Butlin and Frances Drake. Other numbers on the program were: Story telling by Mrs. J. Rinehard; reading, by Mrs.
Robert D. Jones; duet by Julia Getz and Lucille Brunner and a pretty fireside scene by the primary class, with a story told by Alice Green, who represented the mother.

A large Christmas tree, very prettily decorated, was much enjoyed by the children, as was the generous boxes of candy and fruit that were distributed.

Children's Party Is Featured by Pythians

A children's Christmas party was given Friday night by the members of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian sisters at the K. of P. hall on South Brand boulevard.

The program was opened by the salute to the flag, and included piano solos by Genevieve Marek and Audrey Haynes; fancy dancing by Maurine Burke, Eleanor Marek and Marianna Marek; recitations by Dickey Dooze, Ralph Dooze, baby Virginia Frank; songs by Genevieve Marek; recitations by Ethel Kausen, Charles Kausen, Fatsy Moore, C. Christman and Minnie Christman. After the program Santa Claus distributed Christmas packages to all the children.

The committee in charge of this party included W. J. Hibbert, Mrs.
Elizabeth Haynes, Mrs. Clyde St.
Clair, Mrs. Ralph Dooze and Mrs.
Milburn Edwards.

L. A. Police Records Set New Mark in 1921

The police blotters of Los Angeles police stations showed that 87,603 persons were arrested by the police during 1921. This total has never been equaled here.

Banditry is one of the most active phases of local crime the records showed. During 1921 there have been 1042 holdups committed as compared with 482 last year.

A total of fifty-five slayings to date have been investigated by the police. This figure sets a new Los Angeles record.

Automobile thieves were unusually active. To date there have been 2,163 automobiles stolen as compared with 974 last year.

The ghost of the late J. Barleycorn seems to have stalked about Los Angeles frequently this year for there was a total of 6,239 arrests for intoxication to date. During 1920 the police arrested 3,377 men and women for inebriation.

Harding Sees Greater Strides Toward Peace

President Harding believes 1921 has seen great strides in the direction of world peace and that 1922 will see even greater.

"I believe so with all my heart," said the President. "I do not say that with the thought of arrogating to the United States of America any greater part of the contribution than that which has been made by other nations of like importance and like civilization.

"But it seems to me that in 1921, as we have come to know more fully the aftermath of war, as we have come to appraise the unspeakable cost of it all, there is a new conviction in the hearts of men that this sort of appeal—the appeal to arms—to settle international questions, is a futile thing and we are unworthy of our position and unworthy of the blessings which fall to a righteous civilization if we do not find some means for a righteous adjustment without appeal to slaughter and waste and all the distresses that attend."

Airplane Is Used for Santa Claus' Delivery

Santa Claus Saturday night picked up three filled stockings from a rich home and took them to a poor home.
At the Baptist church, Edith Elliot, Kenneth Elliot and Margaret Chase played the part of rich children while Mrs. Paul Elliot played the part of a mother to Barbara Stamps and "Billy" Gray in a poor home. J. L. Gray made a very acceptable Santa Claus. Mrs. M. L. Ris-sell was seen as Mrs. S. Claus, Hugh Freeman was an aviator, G. A. Adams was the postman, who brought a letter by airplane to the Claus home at the North Pole.

The church was decorated for the occasion with pepper boughs and holiday trimming. A large number of people were present including many youngsters.

The King of Spain is the first monarch to own a private aeroplane.

University Has Legal Right to Charge Fees

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 27.—Attorney General Webb in an opinion received here by Gilbert B. Daniels, Chairman of the State Board of Control, declares that the University of California at Berkeley has a legal right to charge tuition fees to resident students but advises that the "cost of attendance at the University occasions alarm."

The Attorney General declares that Daniels' inquiry as to the legality of charging tuition fees "was most proper and calls, in the interest of the public, for a different conclusion, if such could be reached under the existing law." Daniels requested a ruling from the Attorney General on the subject after numerous complaints had been filed with the state board of control here by parents of students who stated that they had been forced to take their children out of the university because of excessive tuition charges under the guise of incidental fees.

Lumber Shipments to Japan Under Inquiry

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 27.—State Forester M. B. Pratt today had under way an investigation of huge lumber shipments now being made by the Pacific coast to Japan.

He stated that preliminary inquiry developed that nearly 91,000,000 board feet of lumber have been shipped to Japan from Oregon, Washington and British Columbia in the past six months and the California lumber market has been stripped clean by Japanese buyers.

Cutting has been forbidden in Japanese forests as a flood control measure, according to Pratt. He said also that Japanese buyers are active in securing "every available foot of port Orford cedar which, because of its clean straight grain, is particularly adapted to the manufacture of airplanes."

Aeroplanes with a cruising radius of 3,000 miles, and able to carry 12 tons of explosives, are being designed.

"DON'T TELL EVERYTHING!"

Mrs. Louise Purnell and Brother Return From Hot Springs

Mrs. Louise Purnell of 353 Ivy street and brother, George Kirsch, have returned from a three weeks' stay at Marietta Hot Springs, and on the return trip by automobile encountered many difficulties because of the heavy rain storm yesterday. They had anticipated leaving the springs yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, but on account of the washout of a culvert in that vicinity were unable to leave until about 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

It was necessary to return by way of Perris, where the mud was hub deep, and from there to detour to Riverside and Ontario. While at Ontario notices were put up to the effect that all bridges were out. In going through Santa Ana Canyon there were land slides and rocks obstructing the road. At one place the water had washed on both sides of the highway and there was just room for one car to travel slowly across. Mrs. Purnell and Mr. Kirsch were told by the workmen to be very careful, as it was expected that the road would give way at any minute. Instead of going through Anaheim it was found necessary to detour to Norwalk.

Says Ford Price Not to Drop on January 1

Edward Lawrence, assistant manager of the local Ford agency, states that a telegram was received at that office Friday from the Ford Motor company of Los Angeles, as follows: "Recent articles and rumors stating there is to be price drop January 1 have no foundation and we are not contemplating price changes. We have no hesitancy in making denial of report."

Automatic Information Given About Southland

A Cutler Selected Automatic Directory Service desk has been installed in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce headquarters giving information on southern California cities, counties, industries, etc.

Besides being the invention of William C. Cutler of 1327 North Louise street, it is interesting because of the novel way in which a vast amount of information is made immediately available. According to a statement by D. W. Stone, president of the directory concern, the facts and figures will be kept up-to-date.

Offers to Sell Self to Aid His Family

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 27.—Paul G. DeVere of 1611 Que street, Lincoln, Neb., has appealed to Postmaster P. P. O'Brien of Los Angeles to act as auctioneer and "sell him to the highest bidder, man or woman."

A windmill which has been in the possession of one family for well over a century still stands in Brixton, London.

TELL EVERYTHING? DON'T IS ADVICE OF THEATRE MAN

Capacity Crowds Greet Film Feature at T. D. L. During Holidays

"If I should tell my patrons everything about 'Don't Tell Everything' which appears at the T. D. L. theatre for the last times today," said Ralph Allan, house manager this morning, "I would never be able to stop talking—and I must eat breakfast."

"But I will say this much: It is one of the most delicious, sparkling comedies ever staged for the screen. The story is fast moving, filled with wonderful interest and was directed by Sam Wood, who also directed 'The Great Moment'."

"The settings range from magnificent drawing rooms to wild mountain cabins and the big storm scene offers one a mighty thrill. Besides being a great story, it is interpreted by three of the most prominent and picturesque figures in screen history—Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson and Elliott Dexter."

"It is one of the best pictures I have had opportunity to present at anytime, anywhere, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it to those who are interested in pictures for entertainment. Hundreds of Glendale people already have acclaimed it most satisfying. We played to capacity audiences last night."

A Burton Holmes Travelogue, a Mack Sennett Comedy and Kingograms of world events with concert solos by Olsen at the organ complete the holiday offering.

Railroad Commission Warns on Speculation

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—The Railroad Commission today sounded a warning against speculation in automobile operative rights. In the future, the commission announced, it will look with disfavor upon proposed transfers where the consideration for operative rights, obtained free from the state, appears unwarranted.

This announcement was made in passing favorably upon the application of the W. D. Greer stage line to sell to Charles A. Hare the stage service between Bakersfield, Famosa, Lost Hills, Pismo, and between Taft, McKittrick and Lost Hills.

Some so-called twenty-three rent car drivers and two truck companies were found by the railroad commission today to be operating in violation of law and were ordered immediately to discontinue such operation. The decision was rendered upon complaint of the Motor Carriers' Association. The defendant passenger carriers contended that they did come within the provisions of the Automobile Transportation act, as they were not regularly operating over any route or between fixed terminals. The commission held, however, that the evidence clearly showed that they were engaged in the business of common carriers between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Pearl Keller's Pupils Give Christmas Party

The pupils of the Pearl Keller school of dancing were entertained at a very delightful Christmas party Saturday afternoon at the studio at 109-A North Brand boulevard. The ballroom was decorated with varicolored balloons. At either end of the stage was a large, beautifully decorated Christmas tree. There were over 200 children in attendance, accompanied by their parents.

A very pleasing program was given by the children, after which the balloons were distributed to the members of the dancing classes. The program included the following numbers: "Snow Dance," by Cecilia Mae Fischer; "Fairy Dance," by Eleanor Marek; "Indian Dance," by Julia Pellegrino; "Spanish Dance," by Rosalita Ruggiero; recitations by Marjorie Turner and Margaret Chase; Irish song and dance, by Gould Moore; "Eccentric Dance," by Glenn Hitchcock; "Highland Fling" and song and dance by Elizabeth and Beatrice Turner, who have just completed a week's engagement at a Long Beach theatre; "Blackbird Dance," by Blossom Moore; "Fairy Dance," by Geraldine Keleher; a Christmas recitation, and song and dance, by Mary Alice Ross.

Further Suspension of Rate Reductions

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 27.—The Interstate Commerce commission further suspended until February 1, 1922, certain scheduled proposed reductions in the railroad commodity rates on cotton and cotton linters from transcontinental territory on and west of the Mississippi river, generally to Pacific coast ports, for export to points in the Orient, the operation of which was suspended until January 3, by a previous order of the commission.

EX-CONVICT IS ACCUSED

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 27.—Bert Andreas, said to be an ex-convict, was arrested in connection with the shooting of Patrolman W. L. Reith and F. L. Nelson. Police refused to state the nature of the evidence against Andreas. Patrolman Reith, who was shot through the neck, is completely paralyzed and is not expected to live. Nelson will recover.

New Connecticut Law Abolishes Mecca of Married Elopers; Nonresidents in Inquiry

By MARGERY REX.
Written for International News Service
NEW YORK—Gone are the good (for elopers) old days of Gretna Green, Connecticut, otherwise Greenwich.

No more may the erring husband chafing at marital bonds, snatch the hand of a new affinity and hurry her along to the tune of wedding bells that clang merrily just beyond the line that incloses the Nutmeg State.

The Legislature of Connecticut has adopted an amendment to the act concerning marriage licenses. This will prohibit Justices of the Peace from issuing any more certificates to the Town Clerk waiving the five-day notice, under the public policy or physical condition clause, and where neither of the parties making application for license is a resident of the town.

Connecticut was a happy haven for Merritt Lane, once Vice-Chancellor of New Jersey. It enabled him to be married to two women at the same time, legally, without the stigma of bigamy or the punishment usually attending that plurally wedded condition.

Herbert Andrews went to Connecticut, too, when Mrs. Maud Andrews, wife No. 1, got on his nerves and he decided to marry pretty young Esther Tannall, of Pittsburgh. Andrews, in this fashion, brought a second wife home to live with No. 1.

Shubel K. Silver, church treasurer of New Brunswick, N. J., followed suit. He eloped to Greenwich with Adele Gouin, fair waitress, of Perth Amboy. To finance their honeymoon, Silver "took" $5,200 worth of church bonds belonging to the church of which he was a supposed pillar.

The pair were found during their trip through New England and were brought back to familiar Jersey scenes. Silver was locked up and the new "Mrs. Silver," presented herself under the new name.

Since then the embezzler has been sentenced for his crime, and his second "wife" says she will await his release, to take place several years hence. The first Mrs. Silver has sued for divorce, naming the former waitress.

Now, under the new law, if neither of the persons applying for licenses in Connecticut is a resident of the town, the clerk may not issue a license till the fifth day following the request, unless the Judge of Probate in the district where the impending wedding is to be celebrated decides in writing that public policy or the physical condition of one of the parties makes it necessary to effect the marriage without delay.

This will not only end those hasty marriages, but it will give all concerned time to look into such proposed unions, especially those which might tend to duplicate the peculiar domestic situations that have existed in the Lane, Andrews and Silver households.

Famous movie stars and actresses have gone to Connecticut to wed, as well as society men and women who wished to avoid the fuss and ceremony attendant upon a previously announced, much-garnished event.

Connecticut, nevertheless, though it may not seem so to the romantically inclined, is bringing her laws nearer to a national uniformity.

Many hope that the time is not far off when uniform marriage and divorce laws will simplify procedure so that a marriage or divorce in one state holds good throughout the Union.

TRAFFIC OUTLOOK GOOD

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—California's tariff outlook is splendid. United States Senator Samuel M. Shortridge, home for the first time since he took office last March, declared here today.

California's interests were well cared for when the tariff bill came from the house and it is possible an even larger measure of protection to our products will be afforded in the senate," he said. Senator Shortridge predicted early passage of the soldier bonus bill, the money probably to be raised through a process of refunding of the allied debts. He sounded an optimistic note upon the progress of the arms conference.

PICKFORD ENTHRALS AS 'LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY'

Queen of Screen Plays Dual Role in New Triumph at Glendale Theatre

You will laugh uproariously, and you will cry when you see Mary Pickford in "Little Lord Fauntleroy" at the Glendale Theatre. And you will say that it is one of the greatest photoplays ever shown—certainly the greatest cinema Mary Pickford has ever appeared in a dual role.

In transcribing Frances Hodgson Burnett's famous story to the silver screen, Miss Pickford has established her claim to the title, "queen of the screen," for the essence of the book-version has been retained.

In the lexicon of praise there are no words comprehensive enough to set forth the glory of this wonder picture. Never in her career of superb work has Mary Pickford done anything approaching her artistry in this production. The closest she ever came to it was in that masterpiece, "Stella Maris," in which, as in "Fauntleroy," she played a dual role.

Miss Pickford's presentation of the two characters, Dearest, the mother, and Cedric Errol, who later becomes Lord Fauntleroy, sets a new mark for things cinematic. The story of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" is too well known to be repeated here. Suffice it to say that the adaptation adheres very closely to the Burnett plot, with the result that none who has read the book will take offense at the play. What is more, Mary Pickford is a decidedly boyish Fauntleroy, curls and all. One actually forgets she is a girl. And her work as Dearest, a superb feminine role, when compared with the boy part, represents the greatest contrast ever pictured for the screen.

FIVE DIE IN COLD WAVE

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 27.—Five men are known to have lost their lives as a result of the cold wave and high wind that held New England in an icy grip. Three members of the crew of the coal barge Dunmore, bound from New York to this city, were drowned when their craft foundered off Minor's Light.

J. F. Allen dropped dead of heart disease while making his way to the Medford postoffice. William Knowlton, an aged railroad crossing tender, was frozen to death at Beechertown.

TRY SULPHUR ON AN ECZEMA SKIN

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur. Declares a noted skin specialist, "Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth."

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good drugstore and use it like cold cream.—Advertisement.
